Our Fondest Memories of

Mrs. Richau's "Ring-A-Ling-A-Ding-Dong" Christmas sing-alongs. - Meredith Jones

When John Clay got his book stapled by Ms. Hurley.
- Eric Newton

When we played a basketball game against Capitol Day School.
- Ben Loftus

I remember in Science, when we were playing a game, Mrs. Suter said "do to," but it sounded like "doodle." So, I drew the answer. - Nick Kiefer

When we "pretended"
to ride the Vampire with Mrs. Green at Kentucky Kingdom
before the park opened.
- Erin Dunagan

My favorite memory is when we beat the teachers in volleyball. - Jacob Hinkle

My favorite memory is when Meredith, Libby and Katherine dressed up as snow bunnies for our 100th day display of pine cone skiing. - Katie Michalczyk

My favorite memory of Good Shepherd is when Mrs. Green sang us "Junior Birdman" in seventh grade. - Shannon Reid

In the sixth grade when a classmate stuck the scissors in the electric socket to see if it still worked and sparks flew everywhere.
It almost gave Mrs. Richau a heart attack. - Holly Smith

A Good Shepherd memory is when Ben Abell, John Clay Gabbard, and Jay Seltsam were in Miss Howser's room and they threw a pencil outside the window and hit the mailman! - Laura Yagel

WHEN MRS. STONE FELL OFF THE BUNKBED
AT THE CONFIRMATION RETREAT. - LAUREN DOYLE

When Ms. Hurley was dared to go on the roller coaster T-2 at Kentucky Kingdom.
- Christine Homa

Good Shepherd School

In 6th grade when we had a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Richau, and Mrs. LaChappel had to act like she fainted for Mrs. Richau to come into the room for her party. - Sarah Jones

My favorite memory was when a classmate stuck my scissors in the electric socket, sparks flew, the lights flickered, and Mrs. Richau almost died! - Annie Prewitt

My favorite memory of Good Shepherd was when we were in the 6th grade and Mrs. Richau lost her books on the first day and she was yelling and we were all scared. - Adam Harrod

Our "wonderful" field trip to the Kentucky Horse Park in 7th grade. - Libby West

The 8th grade year!!
- Michelle Renaud

My favorite Good Shepherd memory is when Ben Abell tried to hit a mailman in the head with a pen out of Mrs. Miller's room. - Kate Reynolds

My favorite Good Shepherd memory was when Sam, Seth, Will, and Jay dressed up as mobsters and planned to go to the YMCA. - Kelli Ryan

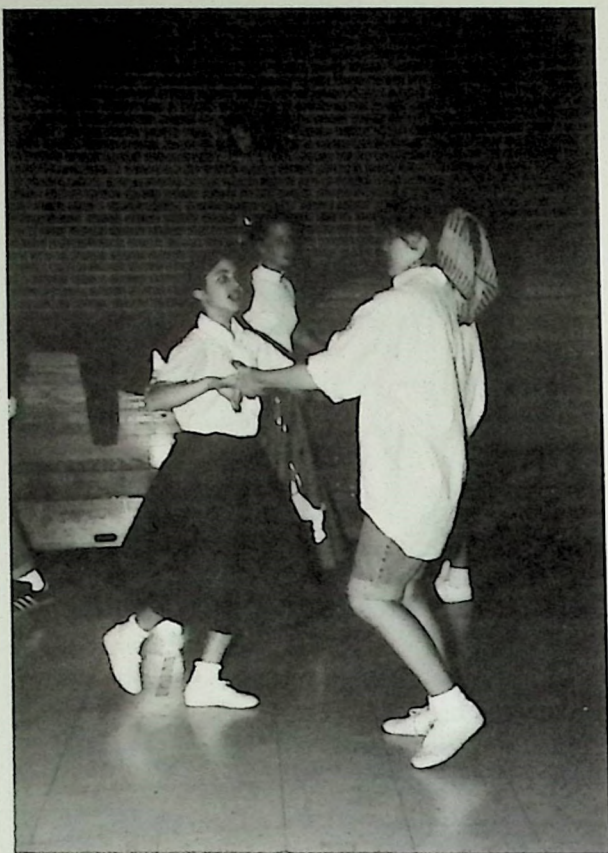

When Ms. Hurley took us to Kentucky Kingdom on a field trip. - Stephanie Stone

When one of our favorite teachers had trouser troubles and I had to go tell her.
- Meredith Howley

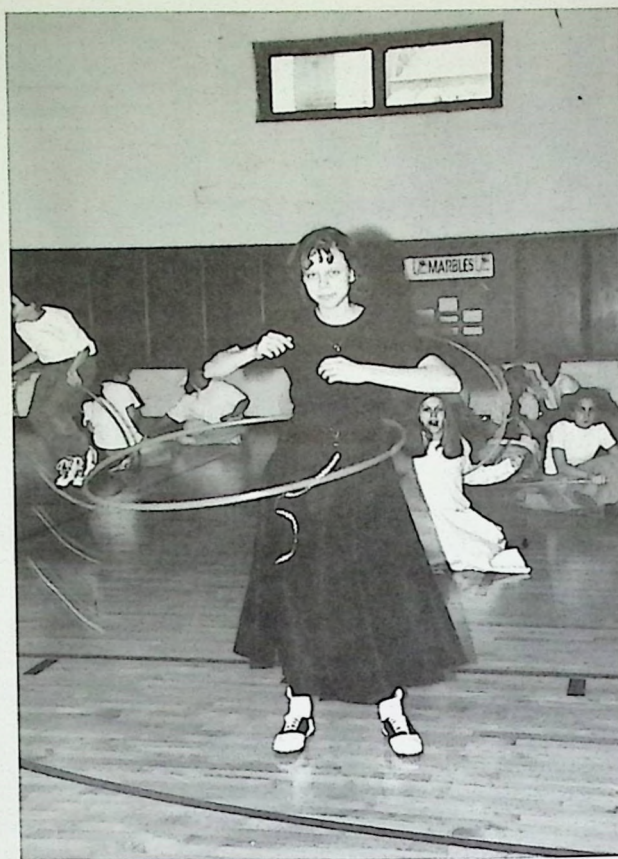

When John and I ate Mrs. Payton's french fries while we were in the office in trouble. - Ben Abell

When Mrs. Richau came to school with her flip flops on because she forgot to change her shoes after she walked her dog. - Amy Williams

When we set Cy up with the mouse. - Joa Harville

Annie, Sarah, and Joa dance their way into the 50's.

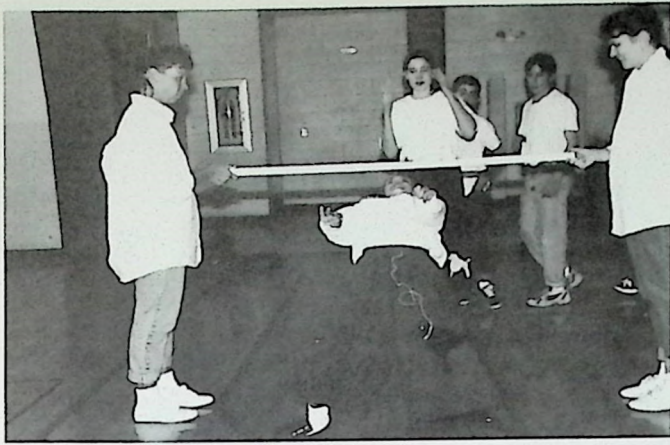

Adam and Stephanie show off their hula hoop skills.

Good Shepherd Faculty in Action

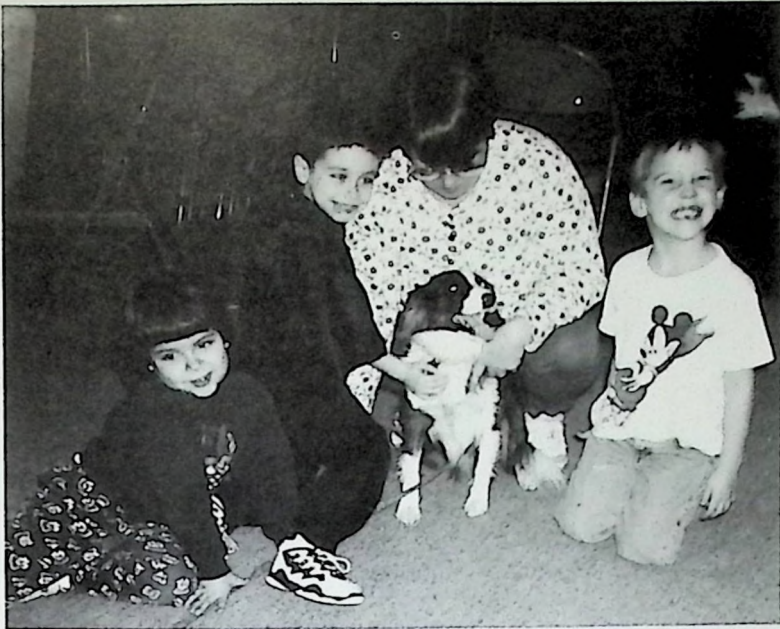

Do we really have to run all the way to the other end of the gym?

Come On Eighth Grade. There's a free dress day at stake here.

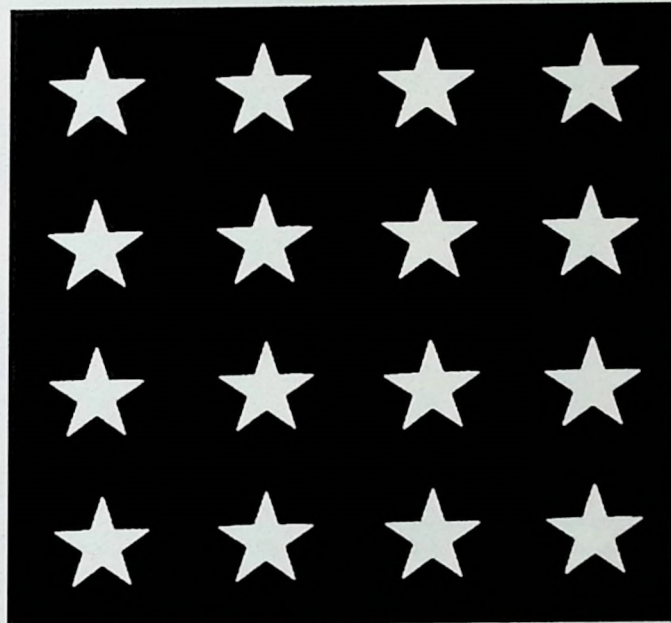

Gosh I hope they don't hit the ball to me.

Community Service

The Frankfort Humane Society teaches Good Shepherd students to love and respect animals.

4th Grade students present a check to the classmates of Luis Castillo, a KSU student who died of cancer. The money will be used to bring electricity to Luis' Honduran Village.

Student Life

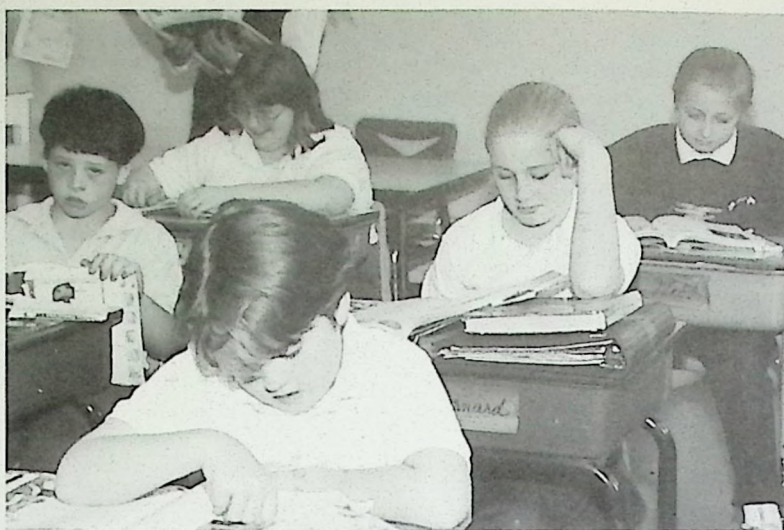

You've got to learn the ABC's before you can learn the keyboard.
